AFFIDAVIT OF SEONAI A. RIJO
REGARDING FILE SELECTION

Seonaid A. Rijo, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am a senior litigation paralegal with the North Carolina Justice Center. I am over the age of 18, am under no disability, and am competent to testify as to the matters set out in this affidavit.

2. This affidavit summarizes the methods by which I identified certain case files in which Portfolio Recovery Associates, LLC ("PRA") obtained default judgments. The case files are from eight counties in North Carolina (Buncombe, Cumberland, Durham, Forsyth, Guilford, Mecklenburg, New Hanover and Wake) for the years 2010 through 2015. The file lists were generated from review of computer screens of the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Court's "VCAP" civil case processing system for the North Carolina courts. A list of the files selected in each county is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. The VCAP data for all North Carolina counties is available at the VCAP terminals in the Wake County Clerk of Court's office. All of the research summarized in the list below is the result of my review of the information generated by the VCAP computer screen in the Wake County Clerk of Court's office, in Room 118, Wake County Courthouse, during the months of June through September, 2016 (intermittently).

4. I was advised that the purpose of the list would be to provide a sample of cases filed in certain North Carolina counties in the six years 2010 through 2015 in which PRA obtained default judgments, and that the list should be created following a mechanical selection process or formula.

5. I started by running a VCAP partial name search for "Portfolio Recovery," then using the "c" command next to the name "Portfolio Recovery" to pull up all "civil actions." I next selected a beginning time period. (VCAP does not offer an option to perform a date range search, nor does VCAP offer the opportunity to select cases filed before a certain date. However VCAP does permit a beginning date, such as beginning January 1, 2010.) This search yielded results pages containing a list of cases. I reviewed these results pages; each screen containing ten new cases. I moved forward and backward through these results screens by pressing F8 to go forward or F7 to go backward.

6. From my review of the results screens, I identified the highest file number for a PRA case for that year (e.g., 10-CVD-15000). Using Microsoft Excel program, I created a calculation spreadsheet that would divide the highest number by 10, to create 10 ranges of numbers (ten deciles) for cases filed in a particular county in a particular year. Exhibit B attached hereto shows the decile ranges for each county for each year.

7. I attempted to list ten PRA default judgment cases per file year (e.g., ten cases per county with case numbers beginning 10-CVD, ten cases per county beginning with 11-CVD, etc.), one from each decile. In each decile I selected the case with the lowest file number.

8. I identified PRA default judgment cases by using the "i" (issues) query for the lowest case number in each decile, and attempted to identify the lowest case number within the decile in which PRA obtained a default judgment. I did this by identifying cases in which VCAP showed a JMT (judgment) entry, indicating a judgment had been granted. For those cases containing the JMT entry, I used the "j" query to review the judgment details.

9. Initially I attempted to search only for “DEFJ” (default judgments) entries. However it became clear that not all files in which default judgments had been entered contained a DEFJ entry, apparently because different individuals made different VCAP entries when a default judgment was rendered. Thus, if I could not find DEFJ entries within the decile parts, I selected a case that contained an entry for “EODF” (entry of default) and also showed that a judgment had been rendered for PRA. I solely focused on cases with judgment types indexed as DEFJ and/or EODF, and ignored all other judgment type profiles, such as JOPL (judgments on the pleadings), SUMJ (summary judgment) or CFNJ (confession of judgment). I also ignored cases in which no judgment had been entered, such as cases that had been voluntarily dismissed (VD) or cases that were still pending.

10. When I could not locate a PRA default judgment within the case numbers in a particular decile, I would then attempt to locate the next default judgment for that year, so that I would “catch up” for the deciles of case numbers in which I could not locate any PRA default judgment. If I could not locate any PRA default judgments in succeeding deciles of the case numbers for a particular year, I would search in the preceding decile.

11. When I could not locate at least ten PRA default judgment cases in a file year, but there was at least one default judgment case, I would list only one case for the year: the single PRA default judgment case that had the lowest file number for that year.

AFFIANT FURTHER SAYETH NAUGHT.

This the 3rd day of November, 2016.

NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

AFFIDAVIT OF KAREN S. EWART
REGARDING EIGHT-COUNTY SAMPLE

I, Karen S. Ewart, being duly sworn, depose and say:

1. I am a citizen and resident of Wake County, North Carolina. I am over the age of 18, am under no disability, and am competent to testify as to those matters which are the subject of this affidavit.

2. This affidavit summarizes the methods by which I reviewed and summarized "PDF" copies of documents provided to me by the North Carolina Justice Center. It was represented to me that these documents were copies of images of papers filed in North Carolina civil actions brought by Portfolio Recovery Associates, LLC.

3. I was provided with PDF files, organized in files matching the file numbers listed on "List of Cases by County," which is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

4. I reviewed each file and provided a summary of what I saw by entering data on an Excel Spreadsheet. A blank spreadsheet, populated only with the column headings described below, was given to me by the Justice Center. In preparing this summary, I obtained the data from the following sources in the copy of the files:

- a. County. I entered the county appearing in the caption of the case as set out in the Judgment by Default.
- b. File No. I entered the file number as set out in the Judgment by Default.
- c. Defendant's Name. I entered the name as set out in the Judgment by Default.
- d. Complaint Filing Date. I entered the date of filing as shown on the face of the Complaint. If the filing date was not legible, I used the date set out above the signature on the Complaint.

- e. Date Default Judgment Entered. I entered the filing date shown on the Judgment by Default. If the filing date was not legible, I used the date set out next to the signature on the Judgment by Default.
- f. Default Judgment Entered by Clerk or Judge. I consulted the signature line on the Judgment by Default. If the Judgment by Default was entered by a clerk or assistant clerk, I entered "Clerk"; if by a judge, I entered "Judge."
- g. Default Judgment Amount. I entered the principal sum of the amount of judgment awarded, which I obtained from the decree at the conclusion of the Judgment by Default.
- h. Number of account statements. I looked at the file to determine if the file contained any copies of monthly credit card account statements as attachments to the Complaint or otherwise. I counted all statement pages for a particular date as a single statement. If the same statement for the same month appeared in the file twice, I counted it as only a single statement. I entered the number of statements. Some files contained a document labeled "facsimile report." An excerpt of an example of such a document appears as follows:

20090913_RMAPRA_4802132504679542_4802132504679542_20090710_stmt

I treated a "facsimile report" as a statement.

- i. Purchases. If there were any monthly account statements in the file, I looked through the statements to determine if the statements listed any purchases. If so, I added up the total amount of purchases listed in the statements and entered the amount.
- j. Cash Advance/Balance Transfers. If there were any monthly account statements in the file, I looked through the statements to determine if the statements listed any cash advances. If so, I added up the total amount of cash advances or balance transfers listed in the statements and entered the amount.
- k. Fees. If there were any monthly account statements in the file, I looked through the statements to determine if the statements listed any fees. If so, I added up the total amount of fees listed in the statements and entered the amount. Because different banks' credit card statements labelled some charges, such as late fees and insurance premiums, in varying ways, sometimes such charges are included as a "purchase" and sometimes as a "fee." However, all such charges are included, and are included only once. I included only the fees for the month represented by the statement. I did not include amounts shown only in year-to-date totals.

- l. Interest/Finance Charges. If there were any monthly account statements in the file, I looked through the statements to determine if the statements listed any interest/finance charges. If so, I added up the total amount of interest/finance charges listed in the statements and entered the amount. I included only the interest/finance charges for the month represented by the statement. I did not include amounts shown only in year-to-date totals.
- m. Total Amount Itemized. Using an Excel formula, I totaled the numbers entered in the "Purchases," "Cash Advance/Balance Transfer," "Fees," and "Interest/Finance Charges" columns to arrive at the Total Amount of Charges and Fees listed in the monthly account statements. The formula for that determination was already entered in the spreadsheet when it was given to me by the Justice Center. For example, the following formula appears in the cell in the first row of that column: "I2+J2+K2+L2."
- n. Default Judgment Amount Equal to or Less Than Amount Itemized?. Using an Excel formula, I compared the amount of the default judgment awarded to the total amount of charges and fees listed in the monthly account statements in the file. The formula for that determination was already entered in the spreadsheet when it was given to me by the Justice Center. For example, the following formula appears in the cell in the first row of that column: " =IF(G2>=M2,"NO","Yes")". G2 is the cell in that row for the "total judgment amount" and M2 is the "total amount itemized." If the amount of the default judgment awarded was equal to or less than the total amount of charges and fees listed in the statements, I marked "Y." If the amount of the default judgment awarded was greater than the total amount of charges and fees listed in the statements, I marked "N."
- o. Original Creditor (O.C.) Affidavit. I determined whether the file contained an affidavit that was signed by someone who said they worked for or were acting as an agent of the original creditor and/or PRA's predecessor in interest. I included affidavits signed on behalf of a company sharing a common name with the original creditor and/or PRA's predecessor in interest (e.g., HSBC and HSBC Card Services (III) Inc.). If such an affidavit was in the file, I entered "Y"; otherwise I entered "N."
- p. O.C. Affiant Name and Date. If the file contained an affidavit that purported to be from the original creditor, I entered the name of the affiant as indicated on the document and the date the affidavit was executed as indicated on the document. In some cases the name was illegible, and I so noted.
- q. O.C. Affidavit References or Attaches Account Statements?. If the "Original Creditor Affidavit" field was marked "Y," I examined the affidavit to determine whether it attached, identified or referred to, by date or other identifying information, any specific or particular credit card statements. If so, I entered "Y"; otherwise I entered "N."

- r. Affidavit by PRA Employee? I determined whether the file contained an affidavit from a person who stated s/he was employed by PRA, or served as a custodian of records for PRA. If such an affidavit was in the file, I entered "Y"; otherwise I entered "N."
- s. PRA Affiant Name and Date. If the "PRA Employee Affidavit" field was marked "Y," I entered the name of the affiant as indicated on the document and the date the affidavit was executed as indicated on the document.
- t. PRA Affidavit References or Attaches Account Statements? If the "PRA Employee Affidavit" field was marked "Y," I examined the affidavit to determine whether it attached, identified or referred to, by date or other identifying information, any specific or particular credit card statements. If so, I entered "Y"; otherwise I entered "N."
- u. Law Firm Representing PRA. I entered the name of the law firm representing PRA as listed on the last page of the Complaint.
- v. Attorney Affidavit? I determined whether the file included an affidavit by PRA's attorney as part the Motion for Default Judgment. If so, I entered "Y"; otherwise, I entered "N."
- w. Attorney Affiant and Date. If "Attorney Affidavit" was marked "Y," then I entered the name of the attorney who signed the affidavit and the date the affidavit was filed. If the file stamp was not legible, I used the date the affidavit was signed.
- x. Attorney Affidavit Asserts Debt? If "Attorney Affidavit" was marked "Y," I determined whether it included an assertion that Defendant was indebted to PRA. An example of such an assertion is as follows:

7. As evidenced by the attached Affidavit of Account, the defendant is in default under the provisions of the credit agreement entered into by said Defendant, and the defendant is still indebted to the plaintiff thereunder in the principal sum of $2,409.08 and the costs of this action. The amount due to the plaintiff from the Defendant as set forth herein and in the attached Affidavit of Account is correct in all respects to the best knowledge and belief of this affiant.

If the affidavit included a paragraph with this language or language that otherwise attested to the Defendant's indebtedness to PRA, I entered "Y"; otherwise I entered "N."

- y. Attorney Affidavit Asserts That O.C. Opened Credit Account? If "Attorney Affidavit" was marked "Y," I determined whether it included an assertion that PRA's predecessor in interest opened a credit account for Defendant and extended credit to Defendant through the account. An example of such an assertion is as follows:

8. The Plaintiff's predecessor in interest, GE Money Bank, a subsidiary of GE Capital Corp., opened a credit account (hereinafter "Account") for the Defendant and extended credit to the Defendant through the Account.

If the affidavit included a paragraph with this language or language that otherwise attested to PRA's predecessor in interest opening an account for Defendant and extending credit to Defendant, I entered "Y"; otherwise I entered "N."

- z. Attorney Affidavit Asserts Use of Credit Card. If "Attorney Affidavit" was marked "Y," I determined whether it included an assertion that Defendant accepted and used the credit extended by PRA's predecessor in interest. An example of such an assertion is as follows:

10. The Defendant accepted and used the credit extended by GE Money Bank, a subsidiary of GE Capital Corp. through the Account during the period that the Account was active.

If the affidavit included a paragraph with this language or language that otherwise attested to Defendant's acceptance and use of the credit extended by PRA's predecessor in interest, I entered "Y"; otherwise I entered "N."

- aa. Attorney Affidavit Asserts That Account Statements Included in the File Provide Itemization. If "Attorney Affidavit" was marked "Y," I determined whether it included an assertion that monthly account statements reflect an "itemization" of the charges and fees owed by the Defendant. An example of such an assertion is as follows:

12. Account statements (hereinafter "Statements") reflecting the original account number and the credit issuer were mailed by the Plaintiff's predecessor in interest to the Defendant at the address provided by the Defendant while the Account was active. Copies of said Statements, previously filed herein as an attachment to the Plaintiff's complaint as "Exhibit A," are incorporated herein by this reference.

13. As this was a credit card account, the origination balance was $0.00. The Statements reflect an itemization of the charges and fees owed, along with an explanation of how the balance owing on the Account was calculated. The last payment on the Defendant's Account was made on or about April 27, 2011.

If the affidavit included paragraphs with this language or language that otherwise attested to the fact that the monthly account statements reflected an itemization of the charges and fees owed, I entered "Y"; otherwise I entered "N."

5. A completed copy of the spreadsheet, entitled "Chart Summarizing Eight-County Sample" is attached to this Affidavit as Exhibit B. Each row of the spreadsheet on Exhibit B contains the data I obtained by reviewing the PDF files matching the file number appearing on the spreadsheet.

6. Some of the files I was asked to review had no Judgment by Default in the file. These files are not included on Exhibit B, the Chart Summarizing Eight-County Sample. I was instructed instead to include these files on a separate spreadsheet, entitled "List of Cases Deleted," which is attached to this Affidavit as Exhibit C.

7. Some of the files I was asked to review had a Complaint date prior to October 1, 2009. These files are not included on Exhibit B, the "Chart Summarizing 367 Court Files." I was instructed instead to include these files on the separate spreadsheet entitled "List of Cases Deleted," see Exhibit C.

8. Some of the files I was asked to review involved a motion for order confirming arbitration order. These files are not included on Exhibit B, the "Chart Summarizing 367 Court Files." I was instructed instead to include these files on the separate spreadsheet entitled "List of Cases Deleted," see Exhibit C.

9. One of the files I was asked to review was an independent civil action upon a prior judgment debt of record. This file is not included on Exhibit B, the "Chart Summarizing 367 Court Files." I was instructed instead to include this file on the separate spreadsheet entitled "List of Cases Deleted," see Exhibit C.

10. Some of the files had statements that were hard to read—I did the best I could to enter the amounts appearing on the statements as indicated herein.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.
